Cushing- Expendable fund for Mack Road was transferred from the Trustees to cover expenses.

Plodzik & Sanderson has not issued a final report-

Cushing- I did call them and it will be issued.

Parks and Recreation

Call to Lisa Witte, Superintendent of SAU 93/MRSD

Cushing- Talked with Witte to reiterate the relationship we have with town and SAU with a letter of understanding. She understands concerns and will look into it.

Highway

Old Marlow Road permit- No updates
Vessel Rock Road permit- No updates

Cheshire County Commissioner Ambulance presentation- Contract reviewed County Administrator Coates, Commissioner Wozmak, Director of Finance Trombly, and Chief of EMS Spain present

Chris Coates- The Cheshire Medical Center has made us the primary and preferred ambulance service for their interfacility transfers.

Estimated revenue discussed - Towns go towards subsidizing the anticipated cost. Quarterly budget reports produced for every department. Public hearings are held for quarterly budget review. Would not be billing town for any individual transfers.

Response times discussed- Gilsums current provider is two miles closer.

Cheshire County EMS has more resources to respond compared to town's current provider. Can have services listed on Fire Chiefs run card, to be contacted and sent out for calls.

Election mailing- 2023 Flier for elections sent out

Budget detail review-

Ambulance Services - Cheshire County EMS line item to be added to budget
Three year contract vs. one year contract- Three year preferred by board
City of Keene contract not received- Selectmen recommend one thousand

General Government/ Professional Services entails- H&R Block-payroll reports, Twin Bridge Service- fiber installation, Town Website reimbursement, evaluation for telephone poles.
