TOWN HALL

Girl Scout Cookies: Request to sell cookies at Selectboard Meeting. Approved.

Mobile device for Health & Welfare Officers: Mitchell shows quote for phones to be bought outright along with phone plans. Selectboard discuss phone service costs. Lounder would like the officers to confirm what they need for user friendliness. Reilly mentions the different cell phone network services; to confirm that the cell towers work in the areas near locations to be most used.

Bazarnicki makes motion for AT&T network and Samsung phones to be provided

Louder 2nds

Vote: Unanimous

Motion passed

Lackey Property – Map 405 Lot 42: Map has been acquired and it is shown with 5 acres. Bazarnicki is working to find more information. The property abutter has a possible property line dispute. Lackey property may have been charged more for taxes; paying for 15 acres instead of the possible 5 acres. A survey still may be best option.

Currently cannot find the property deed.

Ayer – Surveys are second to property deeds

Murphy – Pull up the death certificate and find out the attorney, ask them for more information

Louder wants to revisit the conversation at the next meeting

Map 407 Lot 9 and 10: Discussion to be held after town meeting

NHDOT Bridge Funding Project Letter: Louder read letter, it is asking if the town is still interested in funding as we work towards town funding contribution of 20% of projected cost. Need to confirm the location of bridge. Louder to talk to Harlen about location bridge. Due date 4/15/25 for approval for the go ahead.

Vicki Ayer: Introduces Apparel Impact to the selectboard. After some discussion about Apparel Impact, a bin is to be made available at the transfer station. Need to determine location of bin and to discuss with Matt from MDS.
